

COMENIUS UNIVERSITY IN BRATISLAVA
FACULTY OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC SCIENCES
International Relations and Foreign Study Office
Mlynské luhy 4, 821 05 Bratislava

THE LIST OF COURSES TAUGHT IN ENGLISH WINTER SEMESTER 2021/2022

!!MINOR CHANGES MAY OCCURE!!

INSTITUTE OF ECONOMY

CODE	COURSE TITLE	DEGREE	CREDITS	SHORT DESCRIPTION	LECTURER
FSEV.ÚE/1-AE-060/14	Microeconomics	Bachelor	9	Intermediate microeconomics. It will focus on basic ideas, microeconomic concepts as elasticity of demand and supply production function, characteristics difference between Perfect Competition and imperfect Competition.	Miroslava Jánošová, Tomáš Domonkos
FSEV.ÚE/UE-010/16/15	Applied econometrics	Master	6	It is a master level econometrics course. Student extends her/his knowledge about modern econometric methods with a special focus on univariate, multivariate, linear and non-linear time series models.	Marián Vávra

INSTITUTE OF MEDIAMATICS - MARTIN

CODE	COURSE TITLE	DEGREE	CREDITS	SHORT DESCRIPTION	LECTURER
FSEV.ÚM/1-ÚM-022/21	Marketing	Bachelor	5	The aim of the course is to acquire theoretical knowledge and apply it practically in creating a marketing plan for a selected company.	Lukáš Vartiak

INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC POLICY

CODE	COURSE TITLE	DEGREE	CREDITS	SHORT DESCRIPTION	LECTURER
FSEV.ÚVP/2-mVP-300/18	Human resources management in public sector	Master	6	The course will introduce students to the definition of civil service, historical development of civil service and models of management of HR in public administration in basic areas such as recruitment, promotion, education, remuneration and retirement.	Katarína Staroňová

INSTITUTE OF APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

CODE	COURSE TITLE	DEGREE	CREDITS	SHORT DESCRIPTION	LECTURER
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-1260/21	Psychology of Drug Use	Bachelor	6	Students will gain a basic theoretical overview of psychoactive substances and trends drugs use and traditional and modern approaches to psychological counseling and help related to drug use and addiction treatment.	Miroslava Žilinská
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-140/21	Counselling Psychology	Bachelor	3	After completing the course, the students will be able to describe basic counseling skills and apply them in a brief counseling session; will also be able to understand the professional role of a counselor including ethical guidelines counselors need to adhere to.	Katarína Křížová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-1050/21	Cross-cultural Psychology	Bachelor	6	Course introduces cross-cultural, cultural and indigenous psychologies. Focus will be on indigenous psychologies in countries where are these psychologies developed. Class should improve students' cross-cultural understanding.	Václav Linkov

FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-550/21	Educational and School Psychology	Bachelor	6	Students will acquire knowledge of pedagogical and school psychology, they will be able to apply theoretical and research knowledge, based on the theoretical knowledge they will be able to analyze various school situations and case studies from the school environment.	Lenka Sokolová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-1300/21	School Psychology Interventions	Bachelor	6	Students will gain practical skills in the field of diagnostic and intervention activities of a school psychologist, they will be able to identify the need of intervention in the school system, and they will be able to design and evaluate intervention procedures.	Lenka Sokolová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-10/21	Academic Skills	Bachelor	6	The aim of the course is to develop key academic skills. Students will gain info about the basics of research methodology, be able to work with scientific documents (from searching to processing), learn the basics of writing and presenting scientific works.	Katarína Greškovičová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-270/21	General Psychology 1	Bachelor	6	Students acquire basic knowledge and terminology in psychology. They get an overview of the main directions in psychology and a view of psychology as to scientific discipline.	Elena Lisá
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-40/21	Developmental Psychology	Bachelor	6	After completing the course, the students will be able to understand and describe the changes in the physical, cognitive, emotional, and social domains across each stage of human development.	Katarína Křížová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-30/21	History of Psychology	Bachelor	6	Students will know the main directions and approaches in the development of psychological science and will be able to critically evaluate the research and clinical procedures of each approach and its contribution to current psychology.	Lenka Sokolová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-50/21	Introduction to Neurophysiology	Bachelor	6	After completing the course, the students will be able to understand composition and organization of brain and nervous system, their functions, and their connection to human mind.	Katarína Křížová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-110/21	Organizational and Work Psychology	Bachelor	6	Student acquires basic knowledge about the application of psychology in organizations during the entire employee cycle - from obtaining candidates, through recruitment and selection, development and management, to the termination of employment.	Lukáš Bakoš
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-560/21	Clinical Psychology	Bachelor	3	After completing the course, the students will be able to differentiate between clinical symptomatology of different mental health disorders and describe their etiology and treatment options.	Katarína Křížová
FSEV.ÚAP/1-UAPen-150/21	Methodology and Methods in Psychology: Quantitative methods	Bachelor	6	The aim of the course is for students to master the principles and standards of psychological research and develop skills in the field of quantitative psychological research.	Katarína Greškovičová
FSEV.ÚAP/2-UAP-690/18	Contemporary Social Psychology	Master	6	The students will learn to work with contemporary texts in social psychology.	Radomír Masaryk

INSTITUTE OF EUROPEAN STUDIES

CODE	COURSE TITLE	DEGREE	CREDITS	SHORT DESCRIPTION	LECTURER
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/ 2-UES-790/18	Quantitative Research Methods	Master	6	Introduction to quantitative research methods and data analysis.	Andrej Findor, Matej Hruška, Matúš Sloboda
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/ 2-UES-120/10	MA Thesis Seminar	Master	6	Introduction to basic content and formal criteria required for writing master thesis, Course grading: Class participation and activity (10%), project assignments (40%), final presentation (50%) of the total grade	Andrej Findor

FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-200/18	Persuasion and Attitude Change	Bachelor	6	Introduction to fundamental concepts and theories related to the development, application, and assessment of effective persuasion approaches to attitude or behaviour change. Course criteria: semester tests (40%), group project (60%) of the total grade.	Andrej Findor
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-080/19	Sexuality in Public Policies	Bachelor	3	Introduction to analytical concepts, categories and theoretical frameworks (of gender and queer theory) for studying human sexuality within public policies. Course criteria: semester test (60%), assignment (40%).	Veronika Valkovičová
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-630/15	Development Cooperation in Political Theory and Practice	Master	6	Introduction to development studies, including development discourse, racism and development or the Slovak development apparatus, text (30%), paper (40%), presentation (30%)	Tomáš Profant
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-110/16	Comparative Politics 1	Bachelor	6	An overview of the most important principles shaping comparative method in political science. Reading comments (20%), group presentation (20%), participation (10%), essay (50%)	Karen Henderson
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-390/11	EU Policies	Master	6	Analysis of the dynamic development and current situation regarding a number of EU policy areas. Reading comments (20%), group presentation (20%), participation (10%), essay (50%)	Karen Henderson
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-900/20	EU AND THE SOCIAL MEDIA	Bachelor	6	This course assesses the role of social media in the political communication of the EU. Students will engage with Twitter, Facebook, YouTube and EU official websites to examine the EU's media presence and efforts to win the 'hearts and minds' of its citizens.	Anton Gazarek
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-210/19	Comparative Social Policy under the EU	Master	6	This course gives students an introduction to the basic concepts of social policy and compares the policies among the EU countries, including the issue of how the EU influences these policies.	Steven Saxonberg
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/3-UES-300/16	Course on Publishing in International Journals	PhD	10	Goals of the course: To learn how to frame articles in a manner that makes them publishable for international journals, To learn about publishing strategies, such as the choice of journal, To learn how to deal with editors and critical comments from reviewers	Steven Saxonberg
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-710/15	Academic Writing and Argumentation	Bachelor	6	The students will learn what is a scientific study and how to proceed to write one, through detailed exercises and consultations during the lessons - on the structure, content, and methods of academic papers. They will learn how to read and critically evaluate articles and books that will be part of their further studies. In the end, student will draft their very first academic paper - a literature review on a selected topic	Andrea Figulová, Pavol Hardoš, Zuzana Maďarová
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-170/19	The Politics of Collective Memory	Master	6	This course aims to provide a critical exploration of key issues and challenges related to the politics of memory. By the end students shall be able to: evaluate key concepts related to collective memory, critically evaluate the relationship between indiv. and collective memory, as well as silence and voice; identify remembering/forgetting practices in public life; critically engage with the problem of mobilisation of memory as politics, implement theoretical and conceptual tools in the analysis of empirical cases.	Zuzana Maďarová
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-120/19	US Studies	Master	3	The course aims to provide students with the basic overview on the U.S. politics, foreign policy, history, society, and culture from political science and anthropological perspective.	Andrea Figulová
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-580/15	Introduction to Modern Political Philosophy	Master	6	General overview and introduction to modern (i.e. the latter half of the 20th century) analytical political philosophy, its methods and themes, with particular focus on some of the foundational texts. The course will concentrate on John Rawls' A Theory of Justice and the most important objections that arose in reaction to it – the libertarian and egalitarian challenges. Second half of the course will then concentrate on several normative issues connected with differing doctrines of distributive justice.	Pavol Hardoš

FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-750/16	History of political thought I.	Bachelor	6	This course is designed to provide students with an introduction to political philosophy and with a critical perspective on the historical development of Western political thinking. This first half of the course module will focus on the Ancient tradition of political thought, the relationship and influence of Christianity on the political imaginations, and the birth of the modern political thought, in the works of Hobbes and Machiavelli.	Pavol Hardoš
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-660/15	Democratic theories	Bachelor	6	The course offers a basic overview of the field of democratic theory. Issues covered: a brief overview of the historical development and key terms and mechanisms of democratic politics (representation, political equality, liberal democracy, & democratization) and modern theories of democracy in both their normative and empirical aspects (elitism, pluralism, social choice theory, participatory & deliberative democracy, agonistic democracy). Tests 55%; Research paper 25%; Participation and discussion 20%.	Pavol Hardoš
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-180/10	Human Rights	Bachelor	6	The goal of the course is to familiarize the students with the topic of human rights. The subject deals with the relationship between democracy and human rights, philosophy, genesis of human rights and freedoms, issue of their international protection, as well as with the implementation of human rights in Slovakia	Strážnická Alexandra
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-190/20	Political Sociology	Bachelor	6	The course aims to explore how the politics (institutions, actors, processes) interact, and how politics and society mutually effect each other. Several issues are explored in the comparative perspective. The course provides basic theoretical and methodological insight on the following issues: states and societies; democratization/transition processes – in a comparative perspective, social movements and civil society, societal and political cleavages; political behavior with focus on voting, changes in the value system and its consequences; populism and extremism. . Students will also be encouraged to examine current political events by applying their knowledge and critical thinking.	Oľga Gyárfášová
V.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-210/10	Law of the European Union	Bachelor	6	The course is focused on the system of EU law sources, its application on European and national level. Students will be able to compare different legal systems, to use principles and case law of the EU courts to efficient and euroconform application. The substantive part of the course is focused on the law of EU internal market and 4 fundamental freedoms.	Lucia Mokrá
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-010/10	EU Foreign Policy	Master	6	The course is focused on the interpretation of the position of the individual foreign policy, its historical development, position within the EU institutional system, content, its main objectives and implementation. Students will be able to analyse the EU foreign policy strategies and action plans and will understand the creation of particular policies in external action in the multilayered environment.	Lucia Mokrá, Kristína Janková
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/2-UES-110/10	International Law	Master	6	The purpose of the course International Law is to provide students information and overview in the area of International law regulations. The aim of the course is to inform about the problematics, norms and implementation of international law in concrete areas, mainly in the context as formal framework of international relations regulated by international law norms (consular law, diplomatic law, human rights protection, cyber law, environmental law, law of state territory etc.).	Lucia Mokrá, Bibiana Bajzová
FSEV.ÚEŠMV/1-UES-100/10	International Relations	Bachelor	6	The course should provide a basic introduction to IR. The students will: - learn about the historical origins, purpose, and the major stages of evolution of the discipline; - will also become acquainted with the basic theoretical approaches IR has developed. Upon completing the course the students should be able to both read and critically interpret original texts in the international relations theory tradition and will have developed a basic analytical toolkit for practicing independent interpretation of IR phenomena.	Aliaksei Kazharski